Johan Forssell rotates to Aleris – returns to Investor January 1, 2015

Within the framework of Investor's rotation program, offering its employees competence development and broadening of experience while Investor gains deepened knowledge about its holdings, Johan Forssell, Head of Core Investments, will rotate to the health care and care service provider Aleris for the full year 2014. He will report to CEO Liselott Kilaas.

Johan Forssell will maintain his board assignments in Investor's holdings Atlas Copco and Saab and resume his position as Head of Core Investments effective January 1, 2015. During his absence, Lennart Johansson, Head of Financial Investments, will be acting Head of Core Investments.
