

Concentric AB acquires own shares

Under the authorisation from the annual general meeting 2014, the board of Concentric AB (publ) has decided to buy back own shares on NASDAQ OMX Stockholm.

The repurchase is made on the purposes determined by the annual general meeting, i.e. in order to increase the flexibility for the board in connection to potential future corporate acquisitions, as well as to be able to improve the company's capital structure and to cover costs for the company's incentive programs LTI 2012, LTI 2013 and LTI 2014, including any possible cash settled alternatives, and enable delivery of shares in accordance with LTI 2012, LTI 2013 and LTI 2014.

Any acquisition of shares will take place before the annual general meeting 2015. Own shares may be acquired to the extent the company's holdings of own shares in total amounts to no more than one tenth of all shares in the company. The company currently has 44,215,970 shares outstanding out of which the company at the time of this press release holds 259,295 own shares. Acquisitions will be made within the so called spread, meaning within the interval between the highest purchase price and the lowest sales price. The acquisitions will be managed by an investment firm or financial institution which makes its trading decisions in relation to the company's shares independently of and without influence from the company.
