Autoliv Receives Four Ford World Excellence Awards

(Auburn Hills, Mich., April 20, 2007) – Autoliv Inc. (NYSE:ALV and SSE:ALIV), worldwide leader in automotive safety, today announced it has received four 2006 Ford Motor Company World Excellence Awards. Ford's World Excellence Awards are given to its global suppliers to acknowledge their exemplary performance in 2006. More than 150 people, including representatives from Ford's largest production and non-production global suppliers, attended the ninth annual awards event at the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn, Mich. on April 17, 2007.

The World Excellence Awards recognize suppliers who achieve the highest levels of quality and delivery at the lowest cost, while also affirming the diverse cultures, values, and ideas of the thousands of individuals they employ.

"We are proud to have received not just one but four of these prestigious awards given by the Ford Motor Company," said Stefan Kronung, Vice President, Autoliv Ford Global Business. "It is a testament to the hard work and dedication of our Ford team as well as our 42,000 global associates. These awards demonstrate that Autoliv is a true worldwide leader in automotive safety."

Autoliv was awarded honors in the Gold, Silver and Recognition of Achievement categories. The Gold and Silver Awards are given to suppliers that excel in quality, cost and delivery. The Recognition of Achievement Award is given to suppliers that impact customer satisfaction by providing significant contributions in key areas: New Consumer-Focused Technology, Consumer-Driven Six Sigma, Durability and Reliability Performance, Corporate Responsibility, and Diversity and Community Service. Autoliv was one of six suppliers that received the Recognition of Achievement Award.

Following is a list of Autoliv's Ford World Excellence Awards and the divisions that were honored with them:

Gold Award

Autoliv BKI S.A.; La Pobla de Vallbona, Spain – Airbags

Silver Award

Autoliv B.V. & Co. KG; Dachau, Germany – Airbags

Autoliv North America; Columbia City, Indiana USA – Airbags

Recognition of Achievement Awards
