

PRESS RELEASE

10 April 2007

SWECO acquires company in Norway

SWECO's subsidiary SWECO Grøner has acquired the northern Norwegian engineering consultancy AT Consult with 27 employees.

AT Consult is a multidisciplinary consulting company specialising in services for the construction and civil engineering sector. The company works in a wide range of areas from conceptual design, planning and analysis to project and construction management, and serves clients such as Forsvarsbygg, Statkraft, the Norwegian National Rail Administration, Statoil, building contractors and a number of Norwegian municipalities. AT Consult was established in 1978 and is active in northern Norway with offices in Narvik.

"The acquisition will strengthen our positions in northern Norway and enable us to offer our clients in this region a wider service offering. Above all, AT Consult will reinforce our capabilities with its longstanding experience of assignments in arctic areas," says Vibecke Hverven, Managing Director SWECO Grøner.

SWECO Grøner is one of Norway's leading consulting engineering companies, with more than 500 employees. The company offers consulting services in energy, water and environment, structural engineering, transport and civil engineering, as well as building service systems.

SWECO is continuing its expansion in Norway. Acquisitions in 2006 included E-CO Tech, Riba Kristiansand, Rye-Kittelsen and MEC.

SWECO is the Nordic region's leading provider of consulting services with combined expertise in engineering, environmental technology and architecture. SWECO has around 4,200 employees in eight countries and recorded annual sales of approximately SEK 3.9 billion in 2006. The company has projects currently underway in some 75 countries worldwide. The SWECO share is quoted on the Stockholm Stock Exchange.
