

The Nordic Exchange welcomes Wannakey to First North

Trading in Wannakey's shares will commence today on First North in Denmark. Including Wannakey First North now comprises 89 companies in Denmark, Sweden, Finland and Iceland.

Wannakey was founded in July 2005 by AB Solution Holding Aps and DANFORT A/S, and is now a subsidiary of DANFORT A/S.

Wannakey works with digital sales and marketing tools. The strategy of the company is that expenses should not be a factor which stops the development and spread of new software products. The company wants to develop and market their products Wannakey™ and WannakeyShop™, which help software developers to distribute and sell their products and at the same time give them a software license management system.

Wannakey's offices are based in Fredericia.

"We are happy to welcome Wannakey to First North. They are the 10th new company to join the marketplace this year, and are a very good contribution to our Information Technology sector," says Jan Ovesen, President, OMX Nordic Exchange in Copenhagen.

The short name for Wannakey is WKEY and the trading lot is 25. The Certified Advisor is Philip & Partnere and the company is registered in the Information Technology sector.
