European Communication Service Extends agreement with Telelogic worth 748,345 EUR

MALMO, Sweden and Irvine, California – March 30, 2007 – Telelogic (Nordic Exchange/MidCap/TLOG) today announced an agreement extension for Telelogic Solutions for Enterprise Lifecycle Management (ELM) with a leading European telecommunications service provider. The 3.5 year license and maintenance deal is worth 748,345 EUR.

The deal will see the company which has already standardized on Telelogic DOORS®, Telelogic Tau® and Telelogic System Architect ® to provide their enterprise-level capability for requirements management and modeling in their IT organization, standardize on Telelogic Synergy™ for change and configuration management to the enterprise agreement. Both of the company's investment decisions support their IT department's strategic process improvement initiatives.

"The company required a truly integrated enterprise solution, one that improves both the business and development processes," said Anders Lidbeck, CEO and President of Telelogic "Our ability to deliver against the companies initial stringent process improvement requirements ensured Telelogic was the first choice for their change and configuration management needs".
