I

- 6.1. Until March 1, 2011, the Board of Directors shall be authorised to increase the share capital of the Bank by up to Dkr2,095,302,530. The increase may take place in one or more issues. In accordance with the first paragraph of Article 5 the Bank's existing shareholders shall have pre-emption rights to subscribe for new shares in proportion to their holdings, unless the Board of Directors resolve unanimously that the new shares shall be issued without pre-emption rights for existing shareholders, in which event the new shares shall be offered at market price, always provided that the price is not less than Dkr10.50 per share of Dkr10 and that payment for the new shares is made in cash.
- 6.2. However, new shares issued without pre-emption rights for existing shareholders in accordance with paragraph one of this Article may - subject to the decision of all the members of the Board of Directors - serve as consideration in full or in part in connection with the Bank's acquisition of an existing business.

II

- 6.3. The Board of Directors shall be authorised, until March 1, 2011, on one or more occasions to raise loans against bonds or other instruments of debt, which bonds or instruments of debt shall entitle the lender to convert his claim into shares (convertible loans). Convertible loans shall not exceed the amount which may be raised under the authority to increase the Bank's share capital, cf. the first paragraph of sub-article I above, according to the conversion price fixed on the raising of such loans.
- 6.4. When the Board of Directors decides to raise convertible loans, the authority to increase the share capital, cf. the first paragraph of sub-article I above, shall be considered utilised by an amount corresponding to the maximum conversion right. The conversion period may run for longer than five years after the raising of the convertible loan. The Bank's shareholders are entitled to subscribe for convertible loans in proportion to their shareholdings unless all the members of the Board of Directors resolve that the issue shall take place without pre-emption rights for existing shareholders. In that case the convertible loans shall be offered at a subscription price and a conversion price whereby the conversion right corresponds to the market price for the shares at the time when the Board of Directors makes its decision, always provided that the price is not less than Dkr10.50 per share of Dkr10.
- 6.5. If decided by all the members of the Board of Directors, convertible bonds or other instruments of debt may be issued without pre-emption rights for existing shareholders as consideration in connection with the Bank's acquisition of an existing business.
- 6.6. The decision of the Board of Directors to raise convertible loans must be recorded in the Articles of Association and the Board of Directors is authorised to amend the Articles accordingly.

III

- 6.7. The new shares are negotiable instruments and are registered by name, but may be registered as issued to bearer in the Bank's share register. Taking into account the time at which subscription of shares or exercise of conversion rights takes place, the Board of Directors shall determine the extent to which the new shares shall carry dividend in the year of subscription or in the year when the conversion rights are exercised. All new shares shall carry dividend as from the first accounting year following the year of subscription of shares or exercise of conversion rights. The shares shall be subject to the same provisions regarding pre-emption rights as those applying to existing shares and shall rank pari passu with existing shares with respect to rights, redemption and negotiability.
- 6.8. The detailed terms and conditions governing the subscription of shares and the issue of convertible bonds or other instruments of debt shall be determined by the Board of Directors in accordance with the provisions of the Danish Companies Act.

- 7.1. The shares shall be issued in a denomination of DKr10 through the Danish VP Securities Services (Værdipapircentralen) in accordance with the provisions of law regarding the issue of listed securities, and dividends shall be distributed in accordance with the relevant rules thereon.
