IT - XTP presentation and new time schedule for SAXESS 4.8.0

We have made some time changes to the time plan for the SAXESS 4.8.0 release project. We will have a test environment with all changes and the new version of XTP available from 28th of May. We will launch the new SAXESS 4.8.0 release into production Monday 22nd of October (upgrade and verification of the production launch will be on Saturday 20th of October). More information is available on the very first page when you access the member extranet where the presentation from the XTP seminar in Stockholm is available for download.
