SAXESS user news 10/07

Information about changes on OMX Nordic Exchange in Copenhagen, Helsinki, Iceland and Stockholm.

1 As of June 4, 2007 the following changes take place.

1.1 Launch of pre-trade anonymity on Nordic First North markets (reminder)

OMX has decided, after a customer consultation, to launch pre-trade anonymity in the order book on the First North markets. The implementation will be effective as of June 4, 2007 in the SAXESS system.

The feature that will be implemented is the removal of broker IDs from the order book on First North markets for all instruments (e.g. anonymous pre-trading).

1.2 Changed tick size table for Most Liquid companies (reminder)

OMX the Nordic Exchange has, after customer consultation, decided to change the tick size table for the "Most liquid shares" in Stockholm. The change will in effect lower the tick size for Ericsson and will be implemented as of June 4, 2007 in the SAXESS system.

1.3 New submarket for First North Finland

First North services expand to Finland.

On April 3, OMX announced the expansion of First North, the Nordic Exchange's alternative marketplace, to also include Finland.

The implementation will be effective as of June 4, 2007 in the SAXESS system.

The Nordic Exchange

2 As of September 3, 2007 the following changes take place.

2.1 The names of the exchanges', Markets and Submarkets will be changed.

To reflect OMX common Nordic offering and the new names of the legal entities, the SAXESS database and the information disseminated through SAXESS XTP will be changed regarding the name fields of exchanges, markets and submarkets.

Please read the following pages for more detailed information.

2 As of September 3, 2007 the following changes take place.

2.1 The names of the Exchanges', Markets and Submarkets will be changed

OMX's strategy is to develop and integrate the Nordic securities market for the benefit of investors, members, companies and other stakeholders, and thereby contribute to growth in the region.

The Nordic Exchange in Stockholm/Copenhagen/Helsinki/Iceland is used as names in everyday speech to describe the offering from the exchanges that OMX owns in the Nordic countries.

To reflect OMX's common Nordic offering the names of the legal entities will be changed as of July 1, 2007, to:

- OMX Nordic Exchange Stockholm AB, former Stockholmsbörsen AB
- OMX Nordic Exchange Copenhagen A/S, former Københavns Fondsbørs A/S
- OMX Nordic Exchange Helsinki Oy, former Helsingin Pörssi Oy
- OMX Nordic Exchange Iceland hf., former Kauphöll Íslands hf

The SAXESS database and the name fields in SAXESS XTP will therefore be changed as of September 3 according to the new names, please see detailed information in the tables on the following pages.

2.2 Testing of new names

Is available in the external test system SAXTST3 (and in SAXTST1 when SAXESS release 4.8.0 is released for testing). TARGIN2 reflects the same change.

Note:

Only the name fields (ExchangeName, MarketName, SubMarketName) are affected.
There will be no changes of the ID- and CODE-fields.

Exchanges, markets and submarkets, within the OMX Nordic Exchange, will be changed according to this table.
