IT – Reminder New IP addresses and port numbers in SAXESS Production system

We are upgrading our SAXESS production environments and the infrastructure. We are centralizing some of the connection hardware. Instead of using the “Hub”-concept we will call them Access Points. This was introduced in Helsinki already September 2004. By doing these changes we will make room for higher capacity and lower latency. The address change in SAXESS production is valid from 22nd of October together with the launch of SAXESS 4.8.0.

Members from all countries except Iceland will connect to the same IP and ports. Please spread your sessions to connect to all addresses and ports if possible.

Connection details for all participants except Icelandic members:
