The launch date for SAXESS 5.0.0 is confirmed to June 2, 2008

The launch date for SAXESS 5.0.0 was preliminary set to May 26, 2008. However we have received requests from the London based community to move this date due to a London banking holiday.

The months of May and June have several Nordic banking holidays to consider, which made it impossible to launch SAXESS 5.0.0 earlier, which was our first consideration. Therefore we have decided to move the launch one week forward to June 2.

Changing the launch date does not affect any other member activity dates.
