IT - New version of SAXESS Trade available

A new and corrected version of SAXESS Trade is available for SAXESS 4.8.0. The new version (4.80.00.024) is available for download on the member web. This version will solve a problem with short client freeze during closing of multiple orderbooks at a specific time. We recommend that you use this version for production.

Please contact your Technical Account Manager if you have any questions.
