Autoliv Receives Two Ford World Excellence Gold Awards

(Stockholm, Sweden, June 25, 2009) – – – Autoliv Inc. (NYSE:ALV and SSE:ALIV), worldwide leader in automotive safety, today announced it has received two 2008 Ford Motor Company World Excellence Gold Awards, Ford's highest recognition for suppliers. Ford World Excellence Awards are given to suppliers for helping Ford achieve superior quality, delivery and cost performance, as well as initiatives that improve customer satisfaction.

Ford Motor Company honored its top suppliers Monday evening at its 11th World Excellence Awards ceremony. A total of thirty-six suppliers representing operations in eight countries were recognized in three categories: Gold, Silver and Recognition of Achievement. In the Gold category, Autoliv was the only supplier receiving more than one award.

The two Autoliv facilities that were honored by Ford World Excellence Awards were Autoliv BKI S.A in Spain and Autoliv B.V. Werk Süd in Germany.

"We are proud to have received not just one but two of these prestigious awards given by the Ford Motor Company," said Stefan Krönung, vice president, Autoliv Ford Global Business. "It is a testament to the hard work and dedication of our Ford team as well as our 34,000 global associates."
