Accounting principles

The interim condensed consolidated financial statements for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009 have been established in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), as recognised by the EU, the Swedish Annual Reporting legislation, as well as the Swedish Financial Reporting Board RFR 1.2, "Kompletterande redovisningsregler för koncerner".

This interim report is established for the Group in accordance with the IAS 34 (Interim Reporting) and the Annual Accounts Act. The reference to "IFRS" in this document encompasses the application of International Accounting Standards (IAS) and IFRS standards, as well as the interpretation thereof, as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board's (IASB) Standards Interpretation Committee (SIC) and the Internal Reporting Interpretation Committee (IFRIC). The interim report for the Parent Company is established in accordance with the Swedish Bokföringsnämnden's "Allmänna Råd för frivillig rapportering".

Starting in 2009, NAXS will establish its consolidated accounts in accordance with the IFRS, which represents a change in accounting principles. The implementation of the new accounting principle implies that the opening and closing balances and result for the comparison year, i.e. 2008, are re-calculated in accordance with the IFRS principles. Other short-term financial assets are accounted as cash and cash equivalents in the consolidated statement of cash flow.

The new accounting principles are set forth in the 2008 Annual Report. A footnote disclosure in the Annual Report describes how the transition to IFRS has affected the Company's financial position, its income statement and cash flow. The resulting difference in the shareholder's equity as per January 1, 2008, amounts to - KSEK 1 831. The Parent Company applies from January 1, 2009, the Swedish Financial Reporting Board RFR 2.1 for legal entities, which provides that the IFRS principles shall apply, but with certain exceptions. The application of RFR 2.1 has no effect on the Parent Company's income and financial position.

Note 1. Fund units valuation adjustments to fair value

The IFRS adjustment amounts to KSEK -5,811 is based on valuation adjustments to fair value for 2008, due to the fact that all fund units have been estimated to the fair value reported by the underlying funds and total for 2007 and 2008 the fund value has been adjusted with -7,159. In addition, a valuation adjustment is accounted on the transition to SEK as the functional currency in the Norwegian subsidiary. The adjustment amounted to KSEK -567. In total, the fund units have been adjusted with KSEK 7,726.

Note 2. Equity

The transition to IFRS has resulted in the shareholders' equity diminishing by KSEK 7,700 (KSEK 6,198 in the translation difference, KSEK -4,472 in balanced accounts and KSEK - 9,426 in annual profit). The adjustment in the translation difference is a result of the SEK being used as the functional currency of the Norwegian subsidiary when applying the IFRS.

Note 3. Foreign currency

Unrealized currency gains in SEK related to cash and other financial assets in the Norwegian subsidiary are accounted for in the consolidated account statements. In accordance with IFRS, the SEK has been chosen as the functional currency of the Norwegian subsidiary. This resulted in no unrealized currency differences in the placements in SEK. The adjustment amounts to KSEK 3,615.

The transition to IFRS does not affect the cash flow.
