Carl-Magnus Månsson appointed new President and CEO of Acando AB

The Acando Board of Directors has appointed Carl-Magnus Månsson President and CEO in Acando AB.

Carl-Magnus is currently Vice President and CIO (Chief Information Officer) for the Ericsson Group. He is 42 years old and has had his professional career in different management positions within Ericsson, in Sweden as well as internationally. He has during the last four years as CIO lead major change projects relating to processes and IT-support including the re-structure of the Ericsson's IT outsourcing.

"I am pleased to have succeeded in recruiting Carl-Magnus to Acando. His leadership and both broad and deep competence within the IT area as well as business processes will be most useful on the continued development of the Acando Group", says Ulf J Johansson, Chairman of the Acando Board.

Carl-Magnus Månsson will commence as new President and CEO at the latest in August 2009. Bengt Lejdström, Acando's CFO, will continue as acting CEO until then.
