Agenda

- a) Submission of the annual report for adoption.
Proposal for allocation of profits or cover of losses according to the adopted annual report.

Danske Bank is covered by the guarantee scheme under the Danish Act on Financial Stability (Act No. 1003 of October 10, 2008) and may not pay out dividend during the term of the guarantee scheme.

- b) Election of members to the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors proposes re-election of the following members:

Alf Duch-Pedersen
Eivind Kolding
Peter Højland
Mats Jansson
Majken Schultz
Sten Scheibye
Claus Vastrup
Birgit Aagaard-Svendsen

and election of the following candidates:

Ole Gjessø Andersen
Michael Fairey

Henning Christophersen and Niels Chr. Nielsen wish to resign from the Board of Directors.

Reference is made to Danske Bank's website (www.danskebank.com) for information about the individual members of the Board of Directors. An appendix to this agenda provides information about the current members of the Board of Directors and the two candidates.

- c) Appointment of external auditors.
According to article 21. of the Articles of association, the auditors, Grant Thornton, Statsautoriseret Revisionsaktieselskab, and KPMG Statsautoriseret Revisionspartnerskab, will retire.

The Board of Directors proposes re-appointment of Grant Thornton, Statsautoriseret Revisionsaktieselskab, and KPMG Statsautoriseret Revisionspartnerskab.

- d) Proposal by the Board of Directors to amend articles (the appendix specifies all the proposed amendments but does not include the list of secondary names and the appendix to article 6.9.). A number of the proposals are the consequences of the new Danish Companies Act (Act No 470 of June 12, 2009). The Act had not come into force at the publication of this notice. The proposals made as a consequence of the new Act are conditional only on the Act's coming into force.

The Board

d1) proposes as a consequence of the new Act that the new concepts of the Act be incorporated in the Articles of association and that the existing concepts be mentioned in parenthesis for a transitional period of time.

The appendix specifies the amendments. The amendments are conditional on the Act's coming into force. (The new concepts do not affect the wording of the English version of the Articles of association).

d2) proposes that the section on the registered office of Danske Bank be moved from article 3.1. to article 1.2. (new).

d3) proposes as a consequence of the new Act the following wording to be inserted as a new article 3.: “3.1. The Danske Bank Group's corporate languages are Danish and English.

3.2. The General Meeting may be held in Danish or English. Notice and agenda, including full versions of proposals, and other material may be drafted in English.”

The amendments are conditional on the Act's coming into force.

d4) proposes that the authorisations under 6.1. and 6.3. be extended until March 1, 2015.

d5) proposes that “as laid down by the terms and conditions of the notes” be added to the last sentence of article 6.3. to read as follows:

“Convertible loans shall not exceed the amount which may be raised under the authority to increase Danske Bank's share capital, cf. the first paragraph of subarticle I above, according to the conversion price fixed on the raising of such loans as laid down by the terms and conditions of the notes.”

d6) proposes the following amendments to article 6.4.:

- Deletion of “at the time when the Board of Directors makes its decision” and

- Replacement in the Danish version of “..., dog mindst kurs 105” by “..., dog mindst 10,50 kr. pr. aktie à 10 kr.”. (No replacing required in the English version.)

The revised text will read as follows:

“Danske Bank's shareholders are entitled to subscribe for convertible loans in proportion to their shareholdings unless all the members of the Board of Directors resolve that the issue shall take place without preemption rights for existing shareholders. In that case the convertible loans shall be offered at a subscription price and a conversion price equaling the market price for the shares, always provided that the price is not less than DKr10.50 per share of DKr10.”

Apart from the adjustment of the wording of the minimum price, the motivation for proposals d5) and d6) is to make it clear that the terms and conditions of the notes determine the conversion price and to have a more flexible determination of the market price.

d7) proposes as a consequence of the new Act that the CVR number of VP Investor Services A/S replace the address of VP Investor Services in article 7.2. The revised article 7.2. will read as follows:

“7.2. Danske Bank A/S's share register is kept by VP Investor Services A/S (VP Services A/S), CVR number 30201183.”

The amendment is conditional on the Act's coming into force.

d8) proposes as a consequence of the new Act the introduction of electronic communication, i.e. electronic exchange of documents and electronic mail correspondence between Danske Bank and its shareholders, to replace printed documents. Article 7.3. is to be replaced by article 7.3.-7.7. as follows:

“7.3. InvestorPortalen™ is an Internet-based solution, provided by VP Services A/S, that enables shareholders to electronically sign up for electronic publications from Danske Bank and to provide contact information to allow Danske Bank to send material electronically to shareholders having provided such information. InvestorPortalen™ also enables shareholders to register electronically for general meetings.

7.4. All communication from Danske Bank to its shareholders may take place through electronic document exchange and electronic mail solutions (electronic communication) available to its shareholders at Danske Bank's website (www.danskebank.com) and/or InvestorPortalen™ for the purpose of enabling shareholders to electronically receive notices of general meetings with relevant agendas; complete proposals; proxy forms; interim reports; annual reports; company announcements; financial calendars; prospectuses; and other general information from Danske Bank. Danske Bank always has the option of communicating by ordinary mail.

7.5. The shareholders are responsible for providing Danske Bank with correct electronic contact information.

7.6. Shareholders may send messages to Danske Bank by electronic mail through InvestorPortalen™ to the specified e-mail address, to kapitalej@dankebank.dk or to shareholder@dankebank.com. Instruments to appoint proxies for a general meeting must be made in writing, duly dated and produced.

7.7. The shareholders can find information about system requirements and the procedure for communicating electronically at Danske Bank's website (www.danskebank.com) or the VP Securities A/S's website (www.vp.dk)."

The amendment is conditional on the Act's coming into force.

d9) proposes as a consequence of the new Act an amendment of article 8.2. to match the provisions of the new Act. The revised article will read as follows: "Extraordinary general meetings shall be held at the request of the Board of Directors or one of the auditors elected by the shareholders in general meeting. Shareholders holding a total of 5% of the share capital may submit a written request for an extraordinary general meeting. An extraordinary general meeting to be held for the purpose of transacting specified business shall be convened within two weeks of the receipt of such request."

The amendment is conditional on the Act's coming into force.

d10) proposes as a consequence of the new Act an amendment of article 9. to match the provisions of the new Act with the following modifications:

- Danske Bank will continue to give notice of the convening of the General Meeting to its employees.
- The notice must contain the full wording of any proposals for amendment to the Articles of association.
- Any shareholder shall be entitled to have specified business transacted at the General Meeting, provided that the shareholder submits a request in writing to this effect to the Board of Directors no later one week after the publication of the annual report, even if this date falls within the six-week period preceding the General Meeting.

The revised article will read as follows:

"9.1. A general meeting shall be called by the Board of Directors, at not more than five weeks' and not less than three weeks' notice, by an announcement in the Danish Commerce and Companies Agency's electronic information system, on Danske Bank's website (www.danskebank.com) and in writing to all registered shareholders who have requested such notification. Notice is also given to Danske Bank's employees.

9.2. The notice convening the General Meeting shall state the time and place and the agenda specifying the business to be transacted. If the General Meeting is to transact amendments to the Articles of association, the notice must contain the full wording of any proposals.

9.3. The Agenda and the proposals in extenso (and in the case of the Annual General Meeting also the audited annual report) shall be made available for inspection by the shareholders no later than two weeks prior to the General Meeting and shall also be available for a period of three weeks beginning no later than three weeks before the General Meeting including the day of the general meeting at Danske Bank's website, with information about the total number of shares and voting rights at the date of convening, the documents to be submitted to the General Meeting and the forms to be used for voting by proxy and by letter.

9.4. Any shareholder shall be entitled to have specified business transacted at the Annual General Meeting, provided that the shareholder submits a request in writing to this effect to the Board of Directors and such request is received by the Board of Directors no later than six weeks before the Annual General Meeting or one week after the publication of the annual report.”

The amendment is conditional on the Act's coming into force.

d11) proposes an extension of article 10. The revised article 10.1. will read as follows:

“10.1. The General Meeting is presided over by a Chairman of the Meeting appointed by the Board of Directors. The Chairman shall ensure that the General Meeting is conducted in an orderly manner. The Chairman of the Meeting has the authority needed, including the right to prepare debates, voting themes and voting methods, the right to end debates and speeches, and the right to expel general meeting participants, if necessary. Any member of the Board of Directors shall, however, always be entitled to demand that a ballot be held.”

d12) proposes as a consequence of the new Act an amendment of article 11. to match the provisions of the new Act. The revised article 11. will read as follows:

“11.1. Any shareholder who has requested an admission card not later than three days in advance of the General Meeting shall be entitled to attend the meeting.

11.2. A shareholder is entitled to vote at the General Meeting according to the number of shares held at the date of registration.

11.3. The date of registration is one week before the date of the General Meeting. The number of shares held by a shareholder is calculated on the registration date on the basis of the information in the register of shareholders and information about ownership that Danske Bank and/or VP Investor Services A/S (VP Services A/S) has received but that has not yet been entered in the register of shareholders.

11.4. Each share of DKr10 shall carry one vote at the General Meeting.”

The amendment is conditional on the Act's coming into force.

d13) proposes as a consequence of the new Act an amendment of article 12. to match the provisions of the new Act. The revised article 12. will read as follows:

“12.1. Any shareholder shall be entitled to be represented by proxy and to attend the General Meeting together with an adviser. The instrument appointing the proxy, which shall be produced, shall be in writing and duly dated. The instrument may be revoked at any time. Instruments appointing the Board of Directors shall not be valid for more than one year and must be given to a specific general meeting and issued at a date at which the agenda is known.”

The amendment is conditional on the Act's coming into force.

d14) proposes to insert a second sentence in article 17.2. to read as follows:

“Meetings of the Board of Directors may be held in Danish and English.”

e) Mr Jørgen Dahlberg, a shareholder, has submitted the following proposals for amendments to the Articles of association:

e1) Proposal for new article 2.2.: “Danske Bank must amend article 2.1. in 2015 at the latest to read as follows: “Danske Bank conducts banking business of every nature.”

e2) Proposal for new article 2.3.: “In 2010, Danske Bank must start winding up businesses or types of business not covered by the new article 2.2. The winding-up process must be completed before the Annual General Meeting in 2015.”

e3) Proposal for new article 4.4.: “All shares must be registered by name.”

e4) Proposal for new article 5.1.: “Upon any new issue of shares for cash, existing shareholders shall, as provided by the Danish Companies Act, have pre-emption rights to subscribe for the new shares in proportion to their existing holdings, except in the case of capital increases by issues offered by the Board of Directors without pre-emption rights for existing shareholders pursuant to article 6. below.”

e5) Proposal for new article 6.1.: “Until May 14, 2014, the Board of Directors shall be authorised to increase the share capital of Danske Bank by up to DKr23,991,500. The increase may take place in one or more issues. In accordance with article 5.1., Danske Bank’s existing shareholders shall have pre-emption rights to subscribe for new shares in proportion to their holdings.”

e6) Proposal for deletion of article 6.2.

e7) Proposal for new article 6.4.: “If the Board of Directors decides to raise convertible loans, the authority to increase the share capital, cf. 6.1., shall be considered utilised by an amount corresponding to the maximum conversion right. The conversion period may run for longer than five years after the raising of the convertible loan. Danske Bank’s shareholders are entitled to subscribe for convertible loans in proportion to their shareholdings.”

e8) Proposal for deletion of article 6.5.

e9) Proposal for new article 6.7.: “The new shares are negotiable instruments and are registered by name. All new shares shall carry dividend as from the first accounting year following the year of subscription of shares or exercise of conversion rights. The shares shall be subject to the same provisions regarding pre-emption rights as those applying to existing shares and shall rank pari passu with existing shares with respect to rights, redemption and negotiability.”

e10) Proposal for new article 7.4.: “Decisions to use electronic methods of communication may never prevent shareholders from submitting proposals or requests in writing or by e-mail. The Board of Directors must acknowledge receipt of such messages through the means of communication by which they were received.”

e11) Proposal for new article 10.1.: “The General Meeting is presided over by a Chairman of the Meeting appointed by the General Meeting. Any shareholder shall, however, always be entitled to demand that a ballot be held.”

e12) Proposal for new article 10.2.: “Resolutions and proceedings at the General Meeting shall be recorded in a minutes book to be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting and by the Chairman of the Board of Directors upon election of a Chairman and vice chairman.”

e13) Proposal for new article 13.2.: “13.2. a. Submission of the annual report for adoption. A proposal by the Board of Directors and the Executive Board for allocation of profits or for the cover of losses according to the adopted annual report. No dividend is payable to the shareholders until the share capital (cf. 4.) and statutory and distributable reserves combined equal 40% of Danske Bank's total lending portfolio without any adjustment. Subordinated loan capital cannot form part of the reserves.

13.2. a1 Notwithstanding the above provisions, 2% of Danske Bank's profits must be allocated to a new fund called "Åben & Ærlig Bank". The purpose of this fund is to compensate customers who have not been advised by Danske Bank in accordance with the standards published on Danske Bank's website. Examples of such customers include customers who have not been properly advised on investments and customers who have seen Danske Bank fail to reply to their requests in due time.

13.2 a2 The Board of Directors shall prepare statutes for the fund by September 20, 2010, at the latest. The statutes must observe the limits specified in 13.2. a1. Furthermore, the Board of Directors must prepare rules of procedures and rules governing the activities of the fund and the disbursement of compensation to customers who have seen Danske Bank fail to meet general standards of integrity, expertise, transparency and accessibility."

e14) Proposal for new article 15.1.: "The Board of Directors shall be elected by the shareholders in general meeting, with the exception of those Directors who are elected pursuant to prevailing law on employee representation on the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors must treat all Directors equally regardless of their background for sitting on the Board and how they were elected to the Board."

e15) Proposal for new article 15.3.: "Directors shall be eligible for re-election, but no Director may sit on the Board for more than eight years."

e16) Proposal for new article 18.2.: "No commissions, bonuses or other types of incentive pay may be paid to members of the Board of Directors and Executive Board and other employees in addition to the salary or fee agreed on. Salaries, including pensions, paid to all staff members holding positions from branch manager up to member of the Executive Board must be published on Danske Bank's website with a note issued by the Board of Directors confirming that the staff members have not received additional compensation."

e17) Proposal for new article 23.1.: "The name Åben og Ærlig Bank (Danske Bank A/S) is added to the list of secondary names."

The Board of Directors of Danske Bank does not support the proposals from the shareholder Mr Jørgen Dahlberg.

f) Mr Egon Geertsen, a shareholder, has submitted the following proposals for amendments to the Articles of association:

f1) "Questions asked to a member of the Board of Directors or the Executive Board present at the General Meeting must be answered by the member directly with reference to the question."

f2) "No bonuses or other incentive pay may be disbursed to staff or members of the Board of Directors of Danske Bank until the share price exceeds the price quoted just before the acquisition of banks outside Denmark."

f3) "Twenty-five per cent of the salaries/fees payable to members of the Executive Board and Board of Directors must be paid out in shares that vest after three years."

f4) "Members of the Board of Directors and Executive Board must report on their trading in Danske Bank shares at every general meeting."

f5) “At the most recent General Meeting, shareholders were not allowed to watch the counting of votes.
a. At least five shareholders must watch the counting of votes.”

f6) “The General Meeting should be open to the press, and it should be permitted to take photos and film the event. The Board of Directors is urged to let this proposal take effect at this General Meeting.”

f7) “The General Meeting must be videotaped, published on Danske Bank’s website and be available to all.”

f8) “When voting, shareholders holding more than 5% of the shares must state whether they vote in favour or against new proposals.”

f9) “At least three members of the Board of Directors must be shareholders holding less than Dkr5m of Danske Bank’s share capital.”

f10) “The entire Board of Directors should sit on the scene so that the shareholders can see them.”

f11) “The Board of Directors and the Executive Board have not shown great expertise in acquiring banks outside Denmark – the most recent acquisition was a main contributor to the bankruptcy threatening Danske Bank at last year’s Annual General Meeting.
a. Acquisitions of banks outside Denmark and other major investments that may affect the value of Danske Bank’s share capital must be approved by the General Meeting.”

f12) “If Danske Bank loses more than 50% of its share capital, an extraordinary general meeting must be convened at which all members of the Board of Directors offer their resignation.”

f13) “IT development in India is closed down, and activities are resumed in Denmark. Actual IT development is initiated.”

The Board of Directors of Danske Bank does not support the proposals from the shareholder Mr Egon Geertsen.

g) Request from the Board of Directors to the General Meeting for authorisation enabling Danske Bank to acquire own shares. The Board proposes the authorisation to be worded as follows:

“The Board of Directors is authorised – until March 1, 2015, – to allow Danske Bank and the Danske Bank Group to acquire own shares by way of ownership or pledge up to an aggregate nominal value of 10% of the share capital in accordance with section 198 of the Danish Companies Act. If shares are acquired in ownership, the purchase price must not diverge from the price quoted at the time of acquisition by more than 10%.”

The new Act allows the authorisation of the Board of Directors to acquire own shares within a period of up to five years. The authorisation of the Board of Directors until March 1, 2015, is conditional on the Act’s coming into force. If the Act does not come into force, the authorisation shall be valid until the Annual General Meeting in 2011.

h) Any other business

Mr Jørgen Dahlberg, a shareholder, has submitted the following business to be transacted at the General Meeting:

It is proposed to the General Meeting to order the Board of Directors to find a new Chief Executive Officer not currently employed by Danske Bank.

Resolutions regarding amendments to the Articles of association under items d), e) and f) are passed only if adopted by not less than two-thirds of the votes cast and by not less than two-thirds of the share capital represented at the General Meeting and entitled to vote.

Payment of dividends

Danske Bank is covered by the guarantee scheme under the Danish Act on Financial Stability (Act No. 1003 of October 10, 2008) and may not pay out dividend during the term of the guarantee scheme.

Annual Report 2009

Danske Bank's Annual Report 2009 is expected to be available in print on February 15, 2010. The report will be made available at Danske Bank's head office, Holmens Kanal 2-12, Copenhagen, together with the agenda for the General Meeting and the full text of the proposals.

Share capital, voting rights and authorised institution

The share capital of Danske Bank totals DKKr6,988,042,760.

Information about the total number of shares and voting rights at the date of publication of this notice (February 24, 2010) is available at www.danskebank.com. The agenda, the full text of the proposals, the documents to be submitted to the General Meeting, and forms for voting by proxy are also available at www.danskebank.com.

The Articles of association include the following provisions on voting rights:

11.2. Voting rights at the General Meeting may be exercised by any shareholder who has arranged for his shares to be registered in the share register and who has requested an admission card and ballot paper not later than five days before the General Meeting.

11.3. However, the voting rights in respect of shares acquired by way of transmission shall furthermore be conditional upon the shareholder having arranged for his shares to be registered in Danske Bank's share register, or having given notice and provided proof of his acquisition of shares in any other manner, not later than the day before notice to convene the General Meeting has been given in the Danish Commerce and Companies Agency's information system and Danish daily papers.

11.4. Each share of DKKr10 shall carry one vote at the General Meeting.

Danske Bank A/S has entered an accession agreement with VP Securities A/S. Danske Bank's shareholders may select Danske Bank A/S as their authorised institution with a view to exercising their financial rights through Danske Bank A/S.

Questions

Shareholders are entitled to ask questions, both before and at the general meeting, about all matters relevant to assess the annual report and Danske Bank's position and about business to be transacted at the General Meeting.

Proxy and adviser

Any shareholder shall be entitled to attend the General Meeting by proxy and together with an adviser.

The instrument appointing the proxy, which shall be produced, shall be in writing and duly dated and shall not be valid for more than one year.

A proxy form is available at www.danskebank.com. With the form, shareholders may either authorise another named person to vote, the Board of Directors to vote in accordance with its recommendations or the Board of Directors to vote in accordance with the instructions on the form.

Shareholders may also use InvestorPortalen™, available at www.danskebank.com and www.vp.dk, to electronically appoint a proxy and give voting instructions.

Shareholders who have not ordered admission cards but want to appoint a proxy (either a third party or the Board of Directors) must send a written, duly dated instrument appointing the proxy to be received by VP Investor Services A/S, Weidekampsgade 14, DK-2300 København no later than Thursday, March 18, 2010, at 4.00pm.

3.1. The Danske Bank Group's corporate languages are Danish and English.

3.2. The General Meeting may be held in Danish or English. Notice and agenda, including full versions of proposals, and other material may be drafted in English.

4.1. The share capital of Danske Bank totals DKKr6,988,042,760. The share capital is fully paid up.

4.2. Danske Bank shares are negotiable instruments.

4.3. No special rights shall attach to any share. No shareholder shall be under an obligation to have his shares redeemed, either in full or in part. There are no restrictions on the negotiability of the shares.

4.4. Shares are issued as registered shares, but may be registered as issued to bearer. Danske Bank shares that are or will be held with Danske Bank A/S for asset management or custody or in a pledged custody account will automatically be registered in the name of the custody account holder in the share register, unless Danske Bank is otherwise instructed.

or will be held with Danske Bank A/S for asset management or custody or in a pledged custody account will automatically be registered in the name of the custody account holder in the share register, unless Danske Bank is otherwise instructed.

5.1. Upon any new issue of shares for cash, existing shareholders shall, as provided by the Danish Companies Act, have pre-emption rights to subscribe for the new shares in proportion to their existing holdings, except in the case of issues of employee shares or issues offered by the Board of Directors without pre-emption rights for existing shareholders pursuant to article 6. below.

5.2. By the majority laid down in paragraph two of article 14. hereof, the shareholders in general meeting may decide to waive the above pre-emption rights.

5.1. Upon any new issue of shares for cash, existing shareholders shall, as provided by the Danish Companies Act, have pre-emption rights to subscribe for the new shares in proportion to their existing holdings, except in the case of issues of employee shares or issues offered by the Board of Directors without pre-emption rights for existing shareholders pursuant to article 6. below.

5.2. By the majority laid down in paragraph two of article 14. hereof, the shareholders in general meeting may decide to waive the above pre-emption rights.

6.1. The Board of Directors is authorised, until March 1, 2015, to raise Danske Bank's share capital by up to Dkr23,991,500,000. The share capital increase may take place on one or more occasions. According to article 5.1., Danske Bank's existing shareholders have pre-emption rights to subscribe for the new shares in proportion to their existing holdings, unless all members of the Board of Directors resolve unanimously that the new shares shall be issued without pre-emption rights for existing shareholders, in which event the new shares shall be offered at market price, always provided that the price is not less than Dkr10.50 per share of Dkr10 and that payment for the new shares is made either in cash or as conversion of debt.

6.2. However, new shares issued without pre-emption rights for existing shareholders in accordance with paragraph one of this article may – subject to the decision of all the members of the Board of Directors – serve as consideration in full or in part in connection with Danske Bank's acquisition of an existing business.

According to article 5.1., Danske Bank's existing shareholders have pre-emption rights to subscribe for the new shares in proportion to their existing holdings, unless all members of the Board of Directors resolve unanimously that the new shares shall be issued without pre-emption rights for existing shareholders, in which event the new shares shall be offered at market price, always provided that the price is not less than Dkr10.50 per share of Dkr10 and that payment for the new shares is made either in cash or as conversion of debt.

6.2. However, new shares issued without pre-emption rights for existing shareholders in accordance with paragraph one of this article may – subject to the decision of all the members of the Board of Directors – serve as consideration in full or in part in connection with Danske Bank's acquisition of an existing business.

II

6.3. The Board of Directors shall be authorised, until March 1, 2015, on one or more occasions to raise loans against bonds or other instruments of debt, which bonds or instruments of debt shall entitle the lender to convert his claim into shares (convertible loans). Convertible loans shall not exceed the amount which may be raised under the authority to increase Danske Bank's share capital, cf. the first paragraph of sub-article I above, according to the conversion price fixed on the raising of such loans as laid down by the terms and conditions of the notes.

6.4. When the Board of Directors decides to raise convertible loans, the authority to increase the share capital, cf. the first paragraph of sub-article I above, shall be considered utilised by an amount corresponding to the maximum conversion right. The conversion period may run for longer than five years after the raising of the convertible loan. Danske Bank's shareholders are entitled to subscribe for convertible loans in proportion to their shareholdings unless all the members of the Board of Directors resolve that the issue shall take place without pre-emption rights for existing shareholders. In that case the convertible loans shall be offered at a subscription price and a conversion price equalling the market price for the shares, always provided that the price is not less than Dkr10.50 per share of Dkr10.

6.5. If decided by all the members of the Board of Directors, convertible bonds or other instruments of debt may be issued without pre-emption rights for existing shareholders as consideration in connection with Danske Bank's acquisition of an existing business.

6.6. The decision of the Board of Directors to raise convertible loans must be recorded in the Articles of association and the Board of Directors is authorised to amend the articles accordingly.

8.1. An Annual General Meeting shall be held every year not later than April 30.

8.2. Extraordinary General Meetings shall be held subject to resolutions passed by the shareholders in general meeting or by the Board of Directors, or at the request of one of the auditors elected by the shareholders in general meeting, or of shareholders holding a total of one-tenth of the share capital. Any such request by shareholders shall be made in writing and submitted to the Board of Directors, specifying the business to be transacted. An Extraordinary General Meeting shall be convened within fourteen days of the receipt of such request.

8.3. All General Meetings shall be held in the metropolitan area of Copenhagen.

8.1. An Annual General Meeting shall be held every year not later than April 30.

When the new Act comes into force, article 8.2. will read as follows:

8.2. Extraordinary general meetings shall be held at the request of the Board of Directors or one of the auditors elected by the shareholders in general meeting. Shareholders holding a total of 5% of the share capital may submit a written request for an extraordinary general meeting. An extraordinary general meeting to be held for the purpose of transacting specified business shall be convened within two weeks of the receipt of such request.

8.3. All General Meetings shall be held in the metropolitan area of Copenhagen.

9.1. A General Meeting shall be called by the Board of Directors by an announcement in the Danish Commerce and Companies Agency's electronic information system and in one or more Danish daily papers, including a national daily paper, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, at not more than four weeks' and not less than eight days' notice.

9.2. The notice convening the General Meeting shall state the Agenda. Furthermore, the essentials of any proposals requiring a qualified majority for adoption shall be given in the said notice. However, the notice must contain the full wording of any proposals for amendments to the Articles of association which increase the obligations of shareholders towards Danske Bank or which affect any other shareholder rights on which legislation has placed special importance, such as proposals for the curtailment of dividend rights or distribution of assets to the benefit of others than the shareholders of Danske Bank or the employees of Danske Bank and its subsidiaries. The same applies to proposals to impose restrictions on the negotiability of the shares, to introduce a limit to ownership or voting rights, or to impose obligations on the shareholders to let their shares be redeemed, and to introduce a shift in the distribution of votes and share capital in connection with a division of Danske Bank.

9.3. Notice of the General Meeting shall be given in writing to all registered shareholders who have made a request to that effect. However, notice shall be sent to all registered shareholders in those cases where legislation demands that the notice must contain the full wording of proposals for amendments to the Articles of association.

9.1. A general meeting shall be called by the Board of Directors, at not more than five weeks' and not less than three weeks' notice, by an announcement in the Danish Commerce and Companies Agency's electronic information system, on Danske Bank's website (www.danskebank.com) and in writing to all registered shareholders who have requested such notification. Notice is also given to Danske Bank's employees.

9.2. The notice convening the General Meeting shall state the time and place and the agenda specifying the business to be transacted. If the General Meeting is to transact amendments to the Articles of association, the notice must contain the full wording of any proposals.

9.3. The Agenda and the proposals in extenso (and in the case of the Annual General Meeting also the audited annual report) shall be made available for inspection by the shareholders no later than two weeks prior to the General Meeting and shall also be available for a period of three weeks beginning no later than three weeks before the General Meeting including the day of the general meeting at Danske Bank's website, with information about the total number of shares and voting rights at the date of convening, the documents to be submitted to the General

9.4. Notice of the convening of the General Meeting shall also be given to Danske Bank's employees.

9.5. The Agenda and the proposals in extenso (and in the case of the Annual General Meeting also the audited Annual Report) shall be made available for inspection at Danske Bank's Head Office not later than eight days prior to the General Meeting and shall also be forwarded to all those shareholders entered in Danske Bank's share register who have made a request to that effect.

9.6. Any shareholder shall be entitled to have specified business transacted at the Annual General Meeting, provided that he submits a request in writing to this effect to the Board of Directors before February 1.

10.1. The General Meeting is presided over by a Chairman of the Meeting appointed by the Board of Directors. The Chairman shall ensure that the General Meeting is conducted in an orderly manner. The Chairman of the Meeting has the authority needed, including the right to prepare debates, voting themes and voting methods, the right to end debates and speeches, and the right to expel general meeting participants. Any member of the Board of Directors shall, however, always be entitled to demand that a ballot be held.

10.2. Resolutions and proceedings at the General Meeting shall be recorded in a minutes book to be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting.

11.1. Any shareholder who has requested an admission card not later than five days in advance of a General Meeting shall be entitled to attend the General Meeting.

Meeting and the forms to be used for voting by proxy and by letter.

9.4. Any shareholder shall be entitled to have specified business transacted at the Annual General Meeting, provided that the shareholder submits a request in writing to this effect to the Board of Directors and such request is received by the Board of Directors no later than six weeks before the Annual General Meeting or one week after the publication of the annual report.

10.1. The General Meeting is presided over by a Chairman of the Meeting appointed by the Board of Directors. The Chairman shall ensure that the General Meeting is conducted in an orderly manner. 11.

11.1. Any shareholder who has requested an admission card not later than three days in advance of the General Meeting shall be entitled to attend the meeting.

11.2. Voting rights at the General Meeting may be exercised by any shareholder who has arranged for his shares to be registered in the share register and who has requested an admission card and ballot paper not later than five days before the General Meeting.

11.3. However, the voting rights in respect of shares acquired by way of transfer shall furthermore be conditional upon the shareholder having arranged for his shares to be registered in Danske Bank's share register, or having given notice and provided proof of his acquisition of shares in any other manner, not later than the day before notice to convene the General Meeting has been given in the Danish Commerce and Companies Agency's information system and Danish daily papers.

11.4. Each share of DKr10 shall carry one vote at the General Meeting.

11.2. A shareholder is entitled to vote at the General Meeting according to the number of shares held at the date of registration.

11.3. The date of registration is one week before the date of the General Meeting. The number of shares held by a shareholder is calculated on the registration date on the basis of the information in the register of shareholders and information about ownership that Danske Bank and/or VP Investor Services A/S (VP Services A/S) has received but that has not yet been entered in the register of shareholders.

11.4. Each share of DKr10 shall carry one vote at the General Meeting.

When the new Act comes into force, article 12. will read as follows:

12.

12.1. Any shareholder shall be entitled to be represented by proxy and to attend the General Meeting together with an adviser. The instrument appointing the proxy, which shall be produced, shall be in writing and duly dated and shall not be valid for more than one year.

12.

12.1. Any shareholder shall be entitled to be represented by proxy and to attend the General Meeting together with an adviser. The instrument appointing the proxy, which shall be produced, shall be in writing and duly dated. The instrument may be revoked at any time. Instruments appointing the Board of Directors shall not be valid for more than one year and must be given to a specific general meeting and issued at a date at which the agenda is known.

13.

13.1. At the Annual General Meeting the audited Annual Report is submitted.

13.2. The Agenda for the Annual General Meeting shall comprise the following business:

13.

13.1. At the Annual General Meeting the audited Annual Report is submitted.

- b. Election of Directors in accordance with the provisions of article 15.
- c. Election of external auditors in accordance with article 21.
- d. Any other proposals or business submitted by shareholders or the Board of Directors.

14.1. Decisions at the General Meeting shall be taken by a simple majority of votes, unless otherwise provided by law or by these articles. In case of parity of votes on an election, the election shall be decided by drawing lots.

14.2. Resolutions regarding any amendment to these articles which pursuant to law cannot be made by the Board of Directors shall be passed only if adopted by not less than two-thirds of the votes cast and by not less than two-thirds of the share capital represented at the General Meeting and entitled to vote, always provided that such amendments are not subject to more stringent statutory provisions. Amendments to paragraph three of this article shall, however, be adopted in accordance with the provisions set out therein.

14.3. A resolution to wind up Danske Bank by merger or voluntary liquidation shall be passed only if adopted by not less than three-quarters of the votes cast and by not less than three-quarters of the share capital represented at the General Meeting and entitled to vote.

15.1. The Board of Directors shall be elected by the shareholders in general meeting, with the exception of those Directors who are elected pursuant to prevailing law concerning employee representation on the Board of Directors.

- a. Submission of the Annual Report for adoption. A proposal by the Board of Directors and the Executive Board for allocation of profits or for the cover of losses according to the adopted Annual Report.
- b. Election of Directors in accordance with the provisions of article 15.
