Cybercom signs framework agreement with Posten

Cybercom signed a framework agreement with Posten, the Swedish postal service, to deliver IT consultancy services. The agreement is valid for 2009 and 2010.

Cybercom is one of Posten's six preferred suppliers. The agreement covers all of Posten's operations; supplied services include business development, system development, and support.

"This is a very valuable contract for us," says Pär Abelson, account manager at Cybercom. "There's major potential in our partnership with Posten."
