Ascom Sweden AB reconfirms its confidence in HiQ

Ascom Sweden AB, specialists in customised solutions for wireless internal communication, has reconfirmed its confidence in HiQ by extending its framework agreement. Among other things, the agreement covers services within the areas of development and testing & verification. The agreement is effective for 2009.

“Ascom Sweden is an important client for HiQ and we have enjoyed a good partnership for a number of years. We are now extending last year’s framework agreement, which we naturally see as proof that our partnership is working well and that the client appreciates our services. Over the years we have assisted Ascom with qualified services primarily within quality assurance and software development. We are looking forward to our continued good cooperation,” says Lars-Inge Stenberg, Account Manager at HiQ.

“We are very pleased with HiQ’s work and we have been good partners over the years. We are now extending the framework agreement that we signed in 2008 so that it continues in 2009, and we are looking forward to a good partnership in the year ahead,” says Mats Espling, R&D Manager at Ascom.

Ascom Wireless Solutions offers the market exciting solutions that allow efficient communication in defined environments.

“HiQ has worked on the development and quality assurance of advanced communications systems for various clients for more than a decade. We have sound expertise in this area and to continue working with Ascom in these areas is something that inspires us greatly,” continues Stenberg.
