Peab builds sports ground in Kungsängen

Peab has been commissioned to build a new sports ground in Kungsängen. The customer is Upplands-Bro Municipality and the contract amounts to SEK 135 million.

On the sports ground will be five football fields, two with artificial turf. One of these will be equipped with heating coils and another will be fitted with a refrigeration unit to be used to bandy in wintertime. Around one of the plans, there will be running track and other attributes of athletics. The facility will also have stands and essential service buildings.
