ProfilGruppen has appointed Claes Anselmsson to President and CEO

ProfilGruppen AB has appointed Claes Anselmsson to new President and CEO from 1 January 2011. He succeeds Nils Arthur, who, after nine successful years, retires.

Claes Anselmsson is currently country manager and CEO of Schneider Electric Sweden AB. He has during the past seven years worked within the Schneider Group as responsible for several Swedish subsidiaries. Claes has been working as Business development manager for the Nordic and Baltic countries as well as Business area manager for Schneider Electric in Denmark. Claes has also worked on developing the field of energy efficiency.

The Chairman of ProfilGruppen, Eva Färnstrand, express the Board's satisfaction with the choice of Claes Anselmsson: “With his international experience and a clear business orientation, Claes will provide valuable contributions in the implementation of our expansion strategy and the development of attractive offers for our customers”.

“ProfilGruppen is a successful company in an interesting market, which I am familiar with. It feels like an inspiring challenge to lead the continued development of ProfilGruppen”, says Claes Anselmsson.
