TDC Company awarded DKK 2.9 billion in arbitration case against Telekomunikacja Polska S.A.

A ruling was issued today by the Arbitration Tribunal in Vienna, Austria, in the arbitration case against Telekomunikacja Polska S.A. (TPSA) which TDC A/S through its 25 % ownership in Danish Polish Telecommunications Group I/S (DPTG) is part of.

The dispute concerns the determination of traffic volumes carried via the NSL fibre optical telecommunications system in Poland. DPTG is entitled to 14.8% of the net profits from NSL during the period 1994 to mid 2004. TPSA is a Polish telecommunications group of which France Telecom currently owns a controlling interest.

The ruling awarded DPTG I/S DKK 2.9 billion of which TDC A/S will receive DKK 0.7 billion. The amount corresponds to DKK 0.5 billion after tax.

The effect will be recognized in the statement of income under special items related to income from joint ventures and associates in Q3 2010
