Acando wins framework agreement on management consulting services with global industrial group

The new framework agreement enables Acando to deliver management consulting services to all product companies within the global industrial group.

The agreement comprises services within the areas of supply chain management, customer relationship management, organization, governance and analysis services.

The initial duration of the agreement is three years.

"The agreement is yet another proof of Acando's position as one of the leading management consulting companies in Sweden. The new agreement strengthens our position as a supplier of highly qualified consulting services. We have a longstanding successful cooperation with the client and are very pleased about the extended trust, implied by this new agreement", says Carl-Magnus Månsson, Managing Director and CEO of the Acando Group.
