

SCRIBONA

Press release

Stockholm, 27th of September, 2010

Fredrik Sauter new CEO for Banque Invik

Fredrik Sauter has been appointed CEO of Banque Invik, Luxembourg, a wholly owned subsidiary of Scribona AB under name change to Catella AB. Fredrik Sauter, who is 41 years old, was most recently CEO of Skandiabanken and held prior executive positions at Danske Bank's Swedish business.

As a result of Scribonas acquisition of the Catella-group a major financial group is under construction, active in financial advisory and asset management. The recruitment of Fredrik Sauter is a part of this process and the first step of the revival of Banque Invik in the Nordic market.

"We are very pleased having Fredrik as new CEO of Banque Invik. Fredrik has valuable experience which will be useful for the group. Banque Invik will have an important role in the new group regarding the distribution of financial products and services." Says Johan Ericsson, CEO of Scribona / Catella Group.

At the Extraordinary General Meeting, October 15th, 2010, Scribona AB will change the name to Catella AB.

For additional information contact:

Johan Ericsson, CEO, phone: +46-(0)70 544 00 00

Visit also: www.scribona.com and www.banqueinvik.lu

Scribona is listed on First North and Remium AB, 08-454 32 00, is the company's Certified Adviser.