Tilgin receives continued trust through new order from South Eastern Europe

Stockholm, Sweden, October 21, 2010: Tilgin, a leading provider of solutions for multiplay and next-generation broadband access, has won a third order and continued trust from one of its current customers, a leading operator in South Eastern Europe. Together with Tilgin the operator will continue to provide IP-based services to its subscribers.

The leading operator's roll-out of IP-based services has been well received by their subscribers, meaning a continued steady installation pace. The new order is for approximately SEK 6 million with deliveries to begin in late 2010.

This win is the result of a close cooperation between Tilgin and its local partner and system integrator in the region. The local implementation is jointly managed by the parties involved..
