

Satair concludes the divestment of its OEM activities as planned

Release no. 187
October 27, 2010

(This is a translation into English of the original text in Danish. In case of discrepancies between the two texts, the Danish text shall be considered final and conclusive)

On October 25, 2010 Satair announced the divestment of its OEM activities with expected closing on October 27, 2010. The divestment has today been concluded as planned.

The outlook for 2010/11 remains unchanged, cf. release dated October 25, 2010.

Further information is available from:

CEO John Stær, jst@satair.com or
CFO Michael Højgaard, mih@satair.com

About Satair

Satair is among the world leaders in sales and distribution of spares for aircraft maintenance and production parts for manufacturers of aircraft and provides a range of services that reduce costs in the supply chain.

Headquartered in Denmark, Satair provides services to customers and suppliers all over the globe through its sales and warehousing locations in Europe, North America, the Middle East, Far East and China.

Satair has around 350 employees worldwide and posts an annual revenue of USD 350 million-plus.

