Exchange Notice
Fixed Income (39/10)

New structure for Swedish Mortgage Rates on the Web.

NASDAQ OMX will, starting from the 1st of December, consolidate the two mortgage rate columns presented on the web into one column. The two columns refer to mortgage rates (Tenant own flats) and mortgage rates (Owner-occupied homes). This will further on be presented under the same head line labeled mortgage rates (Tenant own flats and Owner-occupied homes) since the issuers do not make a difference these two mortgage rates apart.
