Securitas withdraws its offer to the shareholders and warrant holders in Niscayah

On May 16, 2011, Securitas announced an offer to acquire all shares and warrants 2007/2012 in Niscayah. On June 27, 2011, Stanley Black & Decker announced a competing bid to the shareholders and warrant holders in Niscayah. In a press release dated September 2, 2011, Stanley Black & Decker announced that all conditions for its bid have been fulfilled, and that the bid will be completed.

Securitas' offer was, inter alia, conditional upon acceptance of the offer to such an extent that Securitas becomes owner of more than 90 percent of the shares in Niscayah. Since it is clear that this condition will not be fulfilled, Securitas withdraws its offer.

The shares and warrants that have been tendered in Securitas' offer will hence not be acquired by Securitas. The shares and warrants will remain in the possession of the owners without the owners having to take any actions.
