Exchange Notice*Derivatives – IT Information 03/12*Changes to Existing Genium INET Reports – Update

NASDAQ OMX will offer our Financial Derivatives customers the possibility to trade and clear commodity products starting on March 5, 2012.

Due to the added product offering, there will be changes to existing reports in production. The changes will be implemented on February 20, 2012 and will affect all members regardless if they choose to trade commodities or not.

The new and changed reports will be available in test system 1 on January 24, 2012.

See the NASDAQ OMX Member Web at this link for details:
