TDC selects Cybercom

TDC and Cybercom signed a three-year frame agreement for telecom and IT services. TDC is a communications solutions provider.

Cybercom is one of four selected frame-agreement suppliers. In total, the contract is worth about SEK 40 million.

"We're very pleased that TDC chose Cybercom," says Patrik Boman, president and CEO of the Cybercom Group. "We're looking forward to continuing and expanding our partnership with TCD, which is a major player on the enterprise market for which we develop and launch various services."

Cybercom possess highly sought-after competence within telecommunications services. The company has many years of experience within the telecom segment and has unrivalled specialist expertise within telecom and IT. Leading multinational enterprises populate Cybercom's customer list.

"To cut our costs and gain a more cohesive contract structure on the consulting side, we just concluded procurement during which we signed contracts with Cybercom and three other consultancies," says Richard Qvist, purchasing manager at TDC Sweden. "We've had business relations with Cybercom before and have very good experiences with the company and the competence that it brings to TDC. We're looking forward to continuing the development of our partnership during the coming three years."
