Background and reasons

The year 2011 has been characterized by supplementary investments in order to lay the foundation for a well balanced forestry operation with self sufficiency in raw material supply. The Annual Allowable Cut has increased through acquisitions by 1.8 million m³, in fact doubling, and investments have been made in new and existing sawmills and infrastructure. The development of the Company's operations has, however, required more time – and more expenses – than initially thought, although things are beginning to come into place and RusForest should be able to deliver a considerably improved financial result during 2012.

Several of the measures taken during 2011 will give effect in the form of increased efficiency during 2012. Considerable work has been done on road construction. Harvesting capacity is now markedly increased and Swedish operators are acting as instructors to raise competence in harvesting. In order to complete ongoing construction of sawmills, remove remaining bottlenecks and cover the need for working capital needed until the measures have full effect, additional capital is needed, and in the Board's judgment, the existing working capital is not sufficient to cover the Company's needs during the coming twelve months.

For this reason, the Board of RusForest has resolved to conduct a rights issue with a preferential right for existing shareholders in a total amount of approximately SEK 452 million before issue expenses². Out of these, SEK 132 million will be used to transform shareholder loans from Vostok Nafta into equity by way of set-off. Out of the remaining proceeds, the Company will use SEK 175 million for investments and SEK 130 million for working capital.

"We are behind plan due to delays in getting the necessary investments in place, within harvesting as well as sawmilling. However, the mid- to long term investment case presented by RusForest remains intact and I am convinced that the rights issue that is now about to be undertaken will provide RusForest with the capital needed to crystalize the significant value in all of our assets. I look forward to a year where we will start to see major improvements in our financial results - and would like to thank our shareholders for the strong commitment that they have showed RusForest", comments Kenneth Eriksson, Chairman of the Board of Directors of RusForest.
