

PRESS RELEASE
November 17th 2008

CEO Lars Wollung resigns from Acando AB

Lars Wollung resigns from Acando after 8 years as President and CEO in order to take on the equivalent position at Intrum Justitia.

"I am sorry to see Lars go, but I wish him and Intrum Justitia the best of luck", says Ulf J Johansson, Chairman of the Acando Board.

"Acando is a stable company that has a healthy result development. The earnings per share have increased with approximately 100 % during the past three years. Acando's strong and experienced Management Team combined with our competent employees assures me that we will continue the excellent work within the Group", Ulf J Johansson continues.

Lars Wollung has six months notice. The process to recruit a replacement has commenced.
