The Norwegian authority of competition approves acquisition

The Norwegian authority of competition has approved the acquisition of the road-marking operation of Mesta AS. Agreed day of taking possession is September 1, 2008.

The road marking business within Mesta, which is a contracting operation, had a turnover of approx. SKr 75 million in 2007.

The business will be integrated in the roadmarking operation in the Geveko subsidiary Cleanosol AS in Norway. The turnover of the Geveko roadmarking business in Norway amounted to approx SKr 130 million in 2007 including manufacture as well as contracting.

With the acquisition of the Mesta roadmarking operation the turnover will exceed SKr 200 million annually.

“ Norway is one of our domestic markets. With the integration of the Mesta road marking operation we will be able to increase co-operation between our nordic subsidiaries and thus improve both efficiency and customer value”, says Hans Ljungkvist.
