Trelleborg's acquisition of PressoNova finalized

Trelleborg's acquisition of the privately owned Swedish company PressoNova AB has been finalized. The company has about 30 employees and sales of approximately SEK 35 M.

PressoNova is currently a subcontractor to Trelleborg and conducts cutting work for Trelleborg's production of brake-linings, so-called brake shims, for the automotive market. Trelleborg has a world-leading position in brake shims.

PressoNova AB has its head office and production in Kalmar. The operation will be integrated into the Trelleborg Automotive business area.

Trelleborg is a global industrial group whose leading positions are based on advanced polymer technology and in-depth applications know-how. We develop high-performance solutions that seal, damp and protect in demanding industrial environments. The Group has annual sales of approximately SEK 31 billion, with about 25,000 employees in 40 countries. The Group comprises four business areas: Trelleborg Engineered Systems, Trelleborg Automotive, Trelleborg Sealing Solutions and Trelleborg Wheel Systems. The Trelleborg share has been listed on the Stockholm Stock Exchange since 1964 and is listed in the OMX Nordic List, Large Cap.
