The Nordic Exchange Welcomes Nordic Mines AB

Stockholm, July 18, 2008 - The Nordic Exchange, part of the NASDAQ OMX Group, Inc. (NASDAQ:NDAQ) announced that Nordic Mines AB, a small cap company within the Materials segment, today moves to the main market of the OMX Nordic Exchange Stockholm. It is the thirteenth company to move from First North to the Nordic Exchange main market.

Nordic Mines AB explores for gold and other metals in Finland and Sweden. The company's main resource is Laiva, a gold deposit in central Finland which is one of the biggest in the Nordics. Nordic Mines' business concept is to create growth through prospecting and exploiting the company's existing and future gold and mineral findings. Nordic Mines' vision is to become one of the leading gold producers in the Nordics and Europe, while setting a good environmental example.

"We are pleased to welcome Nordic Mines as an exciting addition to our Materials sector. This listing is a prime example of how First North can provide the experience and capital strength needed before entering our main market. We look forward to the listing taking Nordic Mines even further within its business ventures," says Jenny Rosberg, Senior Vice President OMX Listings & Capital Markets.

A round lot of shares in Nordic Mines AB, whose short name is NOMI, amounts to 500.
