TeliaSonera's digital annual report wins international prize The International Business Awards, IBA, today announced that TeliaSonera's digital annual report receives the 2008 international prize for best annual report.

For the first time this year TeliaSonera decided to publish a digital annual report on the Internet.

"We are very proud of this award. The digital annual review presents a perfect tool for our stakeholders to get a fast and simple overview of the company as well as the specific information they are interested in." says Martti Yrjö-Koskinen, Senior Vice President and Head of Investor Relations at TeliaSonera.

Moreover, there were environmental reasons for the transition to a digital annual review. Apart from removing the environmental impact that the distribution of a printed annual report implies, TeliaSonera has also saved more than 20.000 kilos of paper compared to previous years.

The digital annual report is available at www.teliasonera.com
