Dagab's new high-bay storage facility in Jordbro inaugurated

Today Dagab will be inaugurating a new, fully automated warehouse for handling pallets in Jordbro, south of Stockholm. The new high-bay storage facility will have capacity for 9,216 pallets, served by Daifaku cranes and a SattStore control system from Consafe Logistics. Two years ago Dagab established a similar high-rise warehouse in Backa, Gothenburg.

"Our experience from Backa has been very positive," says Håkan Åkerström, President of Dagab. "As a result, we are certain that this facility will further contribute to our efficiency."

Dagab is Axfood's own logistics partner and supplies goods to Axfood's store chains: Willys, Willys hemma, Hemköp and PrisXtra.
