Exchange NoticeDerivatives - Product Information 53/12*Introduction of Weekly Options on OMXS30 – Change of name standard

As previously communicated, NASDAQ OMX will as of September 3, 2012, introduce standardized series in Weekly Options on the OMXS30 index.

Please note that the naming convention will change so that Weekly Options can be recognized by the letter “Y” in the code (previously the letter “W”).

For example:

OMXS302J12Y1000 describes an OMXS30 weekly call option expiring on Friday October 12, 2012 with the strike price 1000 (Instrument/Expiry year/Expiry month/Expiry day/Weekly type option/Strike price).

Weekly options are available in External test environment 1.

Please find a product description enclosed.
