The Nordic Exchange welcomes NunaMinerals

Copenhagen, June 4, 2008 – The Nordic Exchange, part of the NASDAQ OMX Group, Inc. (NASDAQ:NDAQ) announces that NunaMinerals is listed on the Nordic Exchange Copenhagen today. NunaMinerals is the third company to be listed in Copenhagen this year.

NunaMinerals is the leading minerals exploration company in Greenland. Since 1999 the company has worked on developing and utilizing the mineral resources of Greenland and today has a portfolio of gold-, platinum- and basic metal projects.

The exploration for minerals in Greenland has been expanding rapidly the last five years and more than 25 companies presently run exploration concessions in Greenland.

The company will use its knowledge on the mineral potential of Greenland as well as the know-how from joint ownership in mines, royalties from the running of mines and the selling of projects to make new business agreements with international partners for the further exploration in Greenland.

“The last few years we have experienced an increased investor interest and that is why it is a natural choice for us to list on the Nordic Exchange today. Through the listing we will get access to a bigger marketplace and more investors and in that respect accelerate the development of our company and our project portfolio. Therefore we are delighted about today and look forward to the new possibilities, which the listing on the Nordic Exchange brings a long”, says Ole Christiansen CEO NunaMinerals.

“We are happy to welcome NunaMinerals to the Nordic Exchange today. The company has come a long way and we look forward to the listing taking the company even further within the sector Materials. It is very positive that NunaMinerals has chosen to become listed on the Nordic Exchange, to among other things support their further development” says Carsten Barring, Head of Sales Denmark, OMX Listings & Capital Markets, Global Corporate Client Group.

A round lot of shares in NunaMinerals, whose short name is NUNA, amounts to 25 shareS. NunaMinerals is a Small Cap company in the Materials sector.
