New Managing Director of Intrum Justitia in Norway

Reidun Korsnes has been appointed managing director of Intrum Justitia's Norwegian subsidiary, Intrum Justitia AS. Ms. Korsnes was most recently with DnB Nor Finans.

During her twenty years with DnB NOR, Reidun Korsnes held a number of positions, including as head of factoring with responsibility for both service production and sales of credit services. She has a broad base of experience from the Nordic Credit Service Management market.

"We are very proud that Reidun has decided to accept the challenge to serve as managing director of our Norwegian operations. With her extensive competence and experience, she will mean a great deal to our further efforts in the Norwegian market," says Lennart Laurén, Regional Manager for Intrum Justitia in Scandinavia.

In recent years Intrum Justitia has implemented a major reorganization and restructuring of its operations in Norway. The recruitment of Reidun Korsnes is an important link in this work.
