Ingenico shipped its 500,000th POS terminal in Indonesia Ingenico reinforcing its exposition in South Asia

Paris – Dec 9th, 2013. Ingenico (Euronext : FR0000125346 - ING), a leading worldwide provider of payment solutions, today announces that it has reached a new milestone with half a million terminals shipped in Indonesia.

With the acquisition and successful integration of PT Integra Pratama in 2012, one of the leading players in the fast growing market of Indonesia, Ingenico has further expanded its footprint across South East Asia. Ingenico has grown to be the leading terminal supplier in Indonesia and confirmed its position with the four major acquirers, in line with Ingenico's growth strategy.

"With our superior products and best in class offering, Ingenico has gained a well-deserved reputation as a best-in-class supplier over the years," commented Andree SANTOSO, Director of PT Ingenico International Indonesia. "Ingenico's leadership in technology and solutions drives us to innovate and continually advance our offerings. With more than 240 million people in Indonesia, we recognise that there is still significant scalable growth. We thank our customers who have made this achievement possible."
