Alfa Laval wins offshore oil and gas order worth SEK 110 million

Alfa Laval – a world leader in heat transfer, centrifugal separation and fluid handling – has won an order from the Korean company Daewoo Shipbuilding & Marine Engineering (DSME) for a freshwater generator module to an offshore oil platform in the North Sea. The order, booked in the Energy & Environment segment early January, has a value of approximately SEK 110 million. Delivery is scheduled for 2014.

The Alfa Laval equipment will be installed onboard the platform where it will convert seawater into both potable and process water.

“This is another large order from the oil and gas industry which confirms the continued positive development we see in the sector. It also proves our strong position as a reliable supplier of equipment for these demanding applications,” says Lars Renström, President and CEO of the Alfa Laval Group.

Did you know... that Alfa Laval has supplied equipment and solutions to offshore platforms in the North Sea for more than 40 years?

About Alfa Laval

Alfa Laval is a leading global provider of specialized products and engineering solutions based on its key technologies of heat transfer, separation and fluid handling.
