

Big Bang bursts on to mobile

March 20, 2014 – Net Entertainment, the world's leading provider of high-quality online casino games, has added Big Bang to its first-class Touch™ mobile portfolio.

Players can now enjoy the intergalactic experience from the comfort of their sofa or while out and about.

Set deep in space, players must journey through parallel galaxies in search of riches on the reels.

The ultimate treasure is the x32 multiplier that will leave participants wanting to sign up to more and more space missions in the future.

Rich colours and space sounds make this an adventure to never forget.

“Big Bang has been a huge hit with players since launch and it's a pleasure to announce that it's the latest of our best of breed slot games to join our expanding Touch portfolio.” comments Simon Hammon, Chief Product Officer of Net Entertainment.
