PRESS RELEASE

31 March 2014, 6:00 p.m. CET

Financial contribution for subway expansion

Faberge will be contributing SEK 100m to the City of Solna's co-financing of the subway to Arenastaden. The payments will be distributed evenly during the construction period, which is scheduled to commence in 2016 and completed in 2022.

“Arenastaden's attractiveness will further increase thanks to the communication hub that will be created with the subway expansion. This will facilitate access to commuter trains, subway services, the light railway and buses, which is also why it has been logical for us to be involved and contribute financially to the expansion,” says Christian Hermelin, CEO of Faberge.

Faberge owns 200,000 sqm of office space in Arenastaden and has the development rights for an additional 250,000 sqm of offices in the area. In addition to the office space, Faberge is joint owner of housing development rights, as well as the Friends Arena, which will also benefit from the subway expansion.
