The share capital may be increased by cash payment or by other means.

If the share capital is increased by cash payment at a subscription price lower than the value of the shares, the existing shareholders are entitled to a right of pre-emption in respect of the amount of the capital increase in proportion to their shareholdings.

Article 5a

During the period ending on 31 December 2008, the board of directors is authorised to issue warrants to some or all of the Company's and its subsidiaries' employees, members of the board of directors and members of the management board in the absolute discretion of and on terms laid down by the board of directors entitling the holders to subscribe, in one or more issues, for shares of the total nominal value of DKK 500,000 (25,000 shares of DKK 20) by cash payment at a price to be determined by the board of directors, which price may not be lower than the market price of the Company's shares on the Copenhagen Stock Exchange at the time of the issue of the warrants plus 10% p.a., and without any right of pre-emption to the Company's shareholders. However, directors may only be granted warrants to subscribe for shares of up to the nominal value of DKK 486,000.

Any new shares subscribed for through exercise of the warrants shall carry the same rights as the existing shares under these Articles, including that the new shares shall be issued to bearer, shall be negotiable instruments, but may be registered in the names of the holders in the Company's register of shareholders, that no shareholder shall be required to have his shares redeemed, and that no restrictions shall apply to the transferability of the shares. The new shares shall rank for dividend as from the time of subscription.

For the purpose of implementing the capital increase relating to the exercise of the warrants, the board of directors is authorised to increase the Company's share capital during the period ending on 1 April 2013 in one or more issues by up to the total nominal sum of DKK 500,000 by cash payment at a price to be determined by the board of directors, which price may not be lower than the market price of the Company's shares on the Copenhagen Stock Exchange at the time of the issue of the warrants plus 10% p.a., and without any right of pre-emption to the Company's existing shareholders. All other terms and conditions governing the subscription for shares shall be stipulated by the board of directors. Any new shares subscribed for through exercise of the warrants shall be negotiable instruments and shall be issued to bearer, but may be registered in the names of the holders in the Company's register of shareholders. No restrictions shall apply to the transferability of the new shares, and no shareholder shall be required to have his shares redeemed in whole or in part. The shares shall rank for dividend as from the time of subscription.

Article 5b

The board of directors has issued warrants for subscription in one or more issues of up to nominally DKK 1,958,900 shares by cash payment at a price of DKK 248.39 per share of nominally DKK 20. The existing shareholders shall have no pre-emption right to the warrants.

Pursuant to the warrants, the shares may be subscribed in full or in part during the period from Monday 26 November 2007 to Friday 30 November 2007, from Monday 10 March 2008 to Friday 14 March 2008, from Monday 8 September 2008 to Friday 12 September 2008 and from Monday 9 March 2009 to Friday 13 March 2009.

The warrant holders may not transfer or pledge the warrants to any third party.

In the event of new shares being subscribed for pursuant to the warrants, they shall carry the same rights as the existing shares according to the Articles hereof, so that the new shares shall be negotiable instruments and shall be issued to the bearer but may be registered in the bearer's name in the company's register of shareholders. No restrictions shall apply to the transferability of the new shares and there shall be no obligation to redeem. The new shares shall carry the right to receive dividend as of the date of the subscription.

If prior to the exercise of the warrants (in full) the company adopts a resolution to introduce share classes, each share subscribed for after the resolution upon exercising the warrants shall rank among the highest share class.

If prior to the exercise of the warrants (in full) the company adopts a resolution to increase its capital by an issue of bonus shares, each warrant holder shall upon exercising his warrants without any further payment be allotted such additional (rounded down) whole number of shares as corresponds to the ratio between the company's capital prior to the capital increase and the nominal amount by which the share capital is increased as a result of the issue of bonus shares, multiplied by the number of shares issued according to the warrants. Consequently, the warrant holders shall be in the same position as if the warrants had been exercised immediately prior to the issue of bonus shares.

If prior to the exercise of the warrants (in full) a resolution is adopted to increase the capital or issue warrants, convertible instruments of indebtedness or the like whereby the shares may be subscribed for at a price not lower than the market price, this shall not affect the terms and conditions of the exercise of the warrants. If a resolution is adopted to increase the capital, issue warrants, convertible instruments of indebtedness or the like, except to employees or board members of the company or its subsidiaries, whereby the shares may be subscribed for at a price below the market value, the number of shares that may be subscribed for according to the warrants and the subscription price thereof shall be adjusted whereby the warrant holder shall be in the same position as if the warrants had been exercised immediately prior to the said change in the company's capital, both in relation to his shareholding (rounded down) in the company and the subscription price.

If a resolution is adopted to increase the capital, issue warrants, convertible instruments of indebtedness or the like to employees or board members of the company or its subsidiaries, whereby shares may be subscribed for at a price below the market value, this shall not affect the terms and conditions of the exercise of the warrants.

If prior to the exercise of the warrants (in full) the company decreases its capital to cover losses, the (remaining) number of shares to be subscribed for according to the warrants and the subscription price thereof shall be adjusted whereby the warrant holder shall be in the same position as if the warrants had been exercised immediately prior to the capital decrease, both in relation to his shareholding (rounded down) in the company and the subscription price.

If prior to the exercise of the warrants (in full), the company decreases its capital by payment to the shareholders, or if a winding-up is decided, including a merger or demerger, the warrant holder shall, when exercising the (remaining) warrants, be in the same position as if the warrants had been exercised immediately prior to the said decision.

In the event of a sale of a majority of the shares in the company meaning a transfer of more than 50% of the company's share capital to a third party (who may be a shareholder in the company), the terms and conditions of the warrants shall not be affected. The company's board of directors may decide:

that warrant holders, who have earned but not yet exercised warrants, shall exercise their earned warrants in full and transfer the shares on the same conditions as the other shareholders (or waive these whereby they will lapse),

that warrant holders, who have earned but not yet exercised warrants, shall retain these on the terms and conditions stated in the warrants, that warrant holders, who have non-earned warrants, shall exercise these in full and transfer the shares on the same conditions as the other shareholders (or waive these whereby they will lapse),

that warrant holders, who have non-earned warrants, shall retain these on the terms and conditions stated in the warrants,

During the period until 1 May 2009, for the implementation of the capital increase pertaining to the exercise of the warrants, the board of directors shall be authorised to increase the company's share capital in one or more occasions by up to nominally 1,958,900 by cash payment at a price of DKK 248.39 per share of nominally DKK 20 and without pre-emption right for the company's existing shareholders. The board of directors shall decide the terms and conditions of the subscription.

During the period from 1 March 2006 until 31 October 2008 the employee's warrants will vest gradually so that 1/32 of the granted warrants will vest each month in the said period.

Pursuant to the warrants, the shares may be subscribed in full or in part during the period from Monday, 24 November 2008 to Friday, 28 November 2008, from Monday, 4 May 2009 to Friday, 8 May 2009, from Monday, 16 November 2009 to Friday, 20 November 2009 and from Monday, 15 March 2010 to Friday, 19 March 2010.

The warrant holders shall not transfer or pledge the warrants to any third party.

In the event of new shares being subscribed for pursuant to the warrants, they shall carry the same rights as the existing shares according to the Articles hereof, so that the new shares shall be negotiable instruments, shall be issued to bearer but may be registered in the bearer's name in the company's register of shareholders. No restrictions shall apply to the transferability of the new shares and there shall be no obligation to redeem. The new shares shall carry the right to receive dividend as of the date of the subscription.

In connection with the grant of the warrants the company has entered into agreement with the recipient of the warrants about taxation of said warrants pursuant to the Tax Assessment Act, section 7H.

If prior to the exercise of the warrants (in full) the company adopts a resolution to inroduce share classes, each share subscribed for after the resolution upon exercising the warrants shall rank among the same share class as the existing share capital.

If prior to the exercise of the warrants (in full) the company adopts a resolution to increase its capital by an issue of bonus shares, each warrant holder shall upon exercising his warrants without any further payment be allotted such additional (rounded down) whole number of shares as corresponds to the ratio between the company's capital prior to the capital increase and the nominal amount by which the share capital is increased as a result of the issue of bonus shares, multiplied by the number of shares issued according to the warrants. Consequently, the warrant holders shall be in the same position as if the warrants had been exercised immediately prior to the issue of bonus shares.

If prior to the exercise of the warrants (in full) a resolution is adopted to increase the capital or issue warrants, convertible instruments of indebtedness or the like whereby the shares may be subscribed for at a price not lower than the market price, this shall not affect the terms and conditions of the exercise of the warrants. If a resolution is adopted to increase the capital, issue warrants, convertible instruments of indebtedness or the like, except to employees or board members of the company or its subsidiaries, whereby the shares may be subscribed for at a price below the market value, the number of shares that may be subscribed for according to the warrants and the subscription price thereof shall be adjusted whereby the warrant holders shall be in the same position as if the warrants had been exercised immediately prior to the said change in the company's capital, both in relation to his shareholding (rounded down) in the company and the subscription price.

If a resolution is adopted to increase the capital, issue warrants, convertible instruments of indebtedness or the like to employees or board members of the company or its subsidiaries, whereby shares may be subscribed for at a price below the market value, this shall not affect the terms and conditions of the exercise of the warrants.

If prior to the exercise of the warrants (in full) the company decreases its capital to cover losses, the (remaining) number of shares to be subscribed for according to the warrants and the subscription price thereof shall be adjusted whereby the warrant holders shall be in the same position as if the warrants had been exercised immediately prior to the capital decrease, both in relation to their shareholding (rounded down) in the company and the subscription price.

If prior to the exercise of the warrant, the company decreases its capital by payment to the shareholders, or if a winding-up is decided, including a merger or demerger, the warrant holders shall, when exercising the (remaining) warrants, be in the same position as if the warrants had been exercised immediately prior to the said decision.

In the event of a sale of a majority of the shares in the company meaning a transfer of more than 50% of the company's share capital to a third party (who may be a shareholder in the company), the terms and conditions of the warrants shall not be affected. The company's board of directors may decide:

that warrant holders holding vested but not yet exercised warrants shall exercise the vested warrants in full and transfer the shares on the same terms as the other transferring shareholders (or waive their rights thereto whereby they will lapse);

that warrant holders holding vested but not yet exercised warrants shall keep such warrants on the terms appearing from this warrant;

that warrant holders holding unvested warrants shall exercise such warrants in full and transfer the shares on the same terms as the other transferring shareholders (or waive their rights thereto whereby they will lapse);

that warrant holders holding unvested warrants shall keep such warrants on the terms appearing from this warrant.

In so far as one or more of the above mentioned provisions prevent that the Tax Assessment Law, section 7H is applicable on all the warrants that warrant holders have been granted – including in so far as one or more of the above mentioned provisions are essential to when the actual exercise price is deemed to exist – then the above mentioned provisions shall not be applicable.

For the implementation of the capital increase pertaining to the exercise of the warrants, the board of directors have decided to increase in the company's share capital in one or more occasions by up to nominally DKK 247,180 by cash payment of a price of DKK 202.30 per share of nominally DKK 20 and without pre-emption right for the company's existing shareholders. The board of directors shall decide the terms and conditions of the subscription.

The warrant holders may not transfer or pledge the warrants to any third party.

In the event of new shares being subscribed for pursuant to the warrants, they shall carry the same rights as the existing shares according to the Articles hereof, so that the new shares shall be negotiable instruments and shall be issued to the bearer but may be registered in the bearer's name in the company's register of shareholders. No restrictions shall apply to the transferability of the new shares and there shall be no obligation to redeem. The new shares shall carry the right to receive dividend as of the date of the subscription.

If prior to the exercise of the warrants (in full) the company adopts a resolution to introduce share classes, each share subscribed for after the resolution upon exercising the warrants shall rank among the highest share class.

If prior to the exercise of the warrants (in full) the company adopts a resolution to increase its capital by an issue of bonus shares, each warrant holder shall upon exercising his warrants without any further payment be allotted such additional (rounded down) whole number of shares as corresponds to the ratio between the company's capital prior to the capital increase and the nominal amount by which the share capital is increased as a result of the issue of bonus shares, multiplied by the number of shares issued according to the warrants. Consequently, the warrant holders shall be in the same position as if the warrants had been exercised immediately prior to the issue of bonus shares.

If prior to the exercise of the warrants (in full) a resolution is adopted to increase the capital or issue warrants, convertible instruments of indebtedness or the like whereby the shares may be subscribed for at a price not lower than the market price, this shall not affect the terms and conditions of the exercise of the warrants. If a resolution is adopted to increase the capital, issue warrants, convertible instruments of indebtedness or the like, except to employees or board members of the company or its subsidiaries, whereby the shares may be subscribed for at a price below the market value, the number of shares that may be subscribed for according to the warrants and the subscription price thereof shall be adjusted whereby the warrant holder shall be in the same position as if the warrants had been exercised immediately prior to the said change in the company's capital, both in relation to his shareholding (rounded down) in the company and the subscription price.

If a resolution is adopted to increase the capital, issue warrants, convertible instruments of indebtedness or the like to employees or board members of the company or its subsidiaries, whereby shares may be subscribed for at a price below the market value, this shall not affect the terms and conditions of the exercise of the warrants.

If prior to the exercise of the warrants (in full) the company decreases its capital to cover losses, the (remaining) number of shares to be subscribed for according to the warrants and the subscription price thereof shall be adjusted whereby the warrant holder shall be in the same position as if the warrants had been exercised immediately prior to the capital decrease, both in relation to his shareholding (rounded down) in the company and the subscription price.

If prior to the exercise of the warrants (in full), the company decreases its capital by payment to the shareholders, or if a winding-up is decided, including a merger or demerger, the warrant holder shall, when exercising the (remaining) warrants, be in the same position as if the warrants had been exercised immediately prior to the said decision.

In the event of a sale of a majority of the shares in the company meaning a transfer of more than 50% of the company's share capital to a third party (who may be a shareholder in the company), the terms and conditions of the warrants shall not be affected. The company's board of directors may decide:

that warrant holders, who have earned but not yet exercised warrants, shall exercise their earned warrants in full and transfer the shares on the same conditions as the other shareholders (or waive these whereby they will lapse),

that warrant holders, who have earned but not yet exercised warrants, shall retain these on the terms and conditions stated in the warrants,

that warrant holders, who have non-earned warrants, shall exercise these in full and transfer the shares on the same conditions as the other shareholders (or waive these whereby they will lapse),

that warrant holders, who have non-earned warrants, shall retain these on the terms and conditions stated in the warrants,

To the extent that one or more of the aforementioned provisions prevent Section 7H of the Danish tax assessment act from being applicable to all warrants issued to the warrant holders – included to the extent that one or more of the provisions affect the determination of date of the actual exercise price – the provision(s) in question shall not be applicable.

For the implementation of the capital increase pertaining to the exercise of the warrants, the board of directors have decided to increase the company's share capital in one or more occasions by up to nominally 5,006,820 by cash payment at a price of DKK 380.80 per share of nominally DKK 20 and without pre-emption right for the company's existing shareholders. However, the capital increase may amount to a larger sum in accordance with the regulation provisions stipulated above. The board of directors shall decide the terms and conditions of the subscription.
