

PRESS RELEASE

6 May 2014

Changes in Lindab's Executive Management Team

Lindab makes the following changes in the Executive Management Team:

Carl-Gustav Nilsson, Lindab's General Counsel, as well as responsible for HR and establishment in new markets, will retire. Carl-Gustav will focus on important Group projects until his retirement.

Fredrik Liedholm, 49, will succeed Carl-Gustav Nilsson. Prior to joining Lindab, Fredrik held the position as General Counsel at Kockums AB/ThyssenKrupp Marine Systems AB. A detailed time plan for Fredrik joining Lindab will be determined shortly, however he will take office no later than during the third quarter of 2014 and will then also replace Carl-Gustav in the Executive Management Team.

Bengt Andersson, 54, responsible for the function Products and Markets, will be part of the Executive Management Team from 1 June 2014. This means that the Executive Management Team will be extended by one person.
