

May 12, 2014

Studsvik appoints new head of Fuel and Materials Technology business area

Camilla Hoflund, aged 44 and holding an MSc in materials technology, has been appointed head of the fuel and materials technology business area.

Camilla Hoflund is currently head of the materials technology department of Studsvik Nuclear, which is part of the fuel and materials technology business area in Sweden. She has long experience of the nuclear power industry and has worked in the Studsvik Group since 1994 and before that as a consultant for business development of services in risk management. Camilla Hoflund will be a member of Studsvik's Executive Group Management and will take up her post on May 12, 2014.

For further information please contact:

Michael Mononen, Chief Executive Officer, Studsvik AB, +46 155 22 10 86 or +46 760 02 10 86.

Facts about Studsvik

Studsvik offers a range of advanced technical services to the international nuclear power industry in waste treatment, consultancy services and fuel and materials technology. The company has more than 65 years' experience of nuclear technology and radiological services. Studsvik has 915 employees in 7 countries and the company's shares are listed on NASDAQ OMX Stockholm.

Studsvik is publishing this information pursuant to the Securities Market Act and/or the Financial Instruments Trading Act. The Information was released for public disclosure on May 12, 2014, at 08.05 CET.

www.studsvik.com