Rezidor announces a new Park Inn at Frankfurt Airport, Germany

The Rezidor Hotel Group further expands the Park Inn portfolio in Germany: The group announces the new Park Inn Frankfurt Airport which is scheduled to open in early 2010 and adds 209 comfortable guest rooms to the Rezidor system. The property will be built directly in front of terminal 2 and be part of a new urban development called "Gateway Gardens" – a combination of offices, shopping malls and hotels, and offering more than 10,000 workplaces. Services of the Park Inn will include a restaurant, meeting facilities, a break out- & fitness area as well as an underground parking.

"Frankfurt Airport is the second largest airport in Europe, and with this new property we are underlining our status as one of the largest airport hotel management companies in the region", comments Kurt Ritter, President & CEO of The Rezidor Hotel Group. Rezidor is already managing the Radisson SAS Hotel Frankfurt – famous for its round, blue shimmering façade and located 15 minutes away from the airport. Park Inn is the company's fastest growing brand and known for its colourful corporate design and its fresh, dynamic and innovative approach – aiming to offer "the best sleep in town" in the mid market category.
