Lindab to supply building solutions worth SEK 20 m for retailer Rusta's new central warehouse

Lindab has been selected as supplier to NIFAB, the builder contractor who will build Rusta's new central warehouse in Norrköping, Sweden. The order value for Lindab is approximately SEK 20 million and includes Lindab's popular decking profile for Nordic climates as well as Lindab sandwich panels from Luleå. The warehouse will be around 65,000 sq.m. and is to be completed in Spring 2015.

Lindab's sales engineer, Jonas Granberg, comments: "We have close collaboration with NIFAB who appreciates Lindab's knowledge and technical competence within the design and planning of large projects. We are strongly committed to finding the best solutions and we will participate all the way to make sure that everything runs smoothly."

Lindab's President and CEO, Anders Berg, adds: "Lindab has great expertise within building solutions and since the re-organisation last year we have increased focus in this area. Feedback shows that the efforts being made to simplify construction including design, documentation, assembly and aesthetics really do help our customers."

The deliveries from Lindab will be made between September this year and March 2015.
