CEO Martin Lindqvist of SSAB commented: "Following the combination, Finland is one of SSAB's domestic markets and it is very pleasing that we can now offer our new shareholders trading on the exchange in Helsinki. We hope that the combined company will lead to greater interest in the SSAB share, and the listing on Nasdaq OMX Helsinki is an important step in this direction," says Martin Lindqvist, President and CEO of SSAB.

Lauri Rosendahl, President of NASDAQ OMX Helsinki said: "We are proud to welcome SSAB AB to our exchange here in Helsinki. A secondary listing in Helsinki in euros will enhance the company's visibility and serve well also the broad base of existing shareholders in the former Rautaruukki. It will also provide access to new investors in particular in Finland. We are pleased to support SSAB in all stages of their development and growth, and to provide the platform they need to create shareholder value."
