INVISIO receives new order of SEK 21.5 million from the U.S. Army

INVISIO (IVSO) has received a new order on communication and hearing protection systems from the American military program TCAPS. The order is the latest in a series of orders from TCAPS beginning October 2013 and is this time worth SEK 21.5 million

The military program TCAPS, Tactical Communication and Protective System, is managed by the organization PEO Soldier within the U.S. Army. The purpose of TCAPS is to provide hearing protection and auditory situational awareness devices to soldiers, to increase hearing readiness and reduce hearing damage in high noise and extreme conditions. Within TCAPS, extensive testing and evaluation of communications and hearing protection solutions has been conducted. Today, the INVISIO solution is approved for use.

The latest order worth SEK 21.5 will be delivered during the first quarter of 2015.

INVISIO is world leading within specialized voice communication in all environments, in heavy noise as well as under water and extreme heat. With knowledge in sound transmission and the patented technology INVISIO Bone Conduction the company develops, markets, and sells advanced headsets, control units and peripherals for usage with two-way radio.
